FIAP BLUE BADGE

D Alia Valentina, EFIAP/b
Italy

She was born in 1973 in Palermo (Italy) where she lives and teaches. She is passionate about art and information technology, she loves travels and architecture and she combines these interests with a great passion for photography. Photography has taken on fundamental importance in recent years because it has become an indispensable and irreplaceable means of expression and a personal way for a more careful reading of reality.

She prefers architectural photography: she loves exploring buildings and urban spaces trying to grasp geometric patterns, shapes and volumes, also in relation to the human presence. In particular, the originality of the articulation of spaces and volumes of contemporary architecture, which is manifested for example through perspective games and innovative forms, arouses great interest.

She received EFIAP/b Honour (Excellence de la Federation Internationale de l'Art Photographique - Bronze), AFI (Artista Fotografo Italiano) and EFIAF/b (Eccellenza FIAF - Bronze) Italians Honours.
